SEARCHING FOR A GASTROENTEROLOGIST WITH INFLAMMATORY BOWEL DISEASE EXPERIENCE

Scripps Clinic Medical Group (SCMG) is a multi-specialty group with just over 1,000 physicians and advanced practice clinicians serving San Diego and the surrounding region. Established more than 50 years ago, it is recognized as one of the premier medical groups in the country and boasts an excellent reputation across more than 60 medical and surgical specialties.

We are committed to advancing medical research, education, and patient-centered care. We are currently seeking a dedicated and experienced General Gastroenterologist with a special interest in Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD) to join our team.

Job Posting: Gastroenterologist (General GI with IBD Experience)
FTE: 0.8 clinical / 0.2 academic

General Description

We are looking for a highly skilled and board-certified or board-eligible Gastroenterologist to join our growing GI Division. The ideal candidate will have experience caring for patients with Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD) and an interest in contributing to our expanding IBD program while maintaining a broad general GI practice.

In this role, you will provide patient-centered GI care, participate in teaching GI fellows, and engage in academic activities. Experience with intestinal ultrasound is welcome but not required; training can be provided. This is an exceptional opportunity to make an impact in a collaborative, innovative, and academically active environment.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide comprehensive care to general GI patients, including those with Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD), encompassing diagnosis, treatment, and long-term management.
- Perform standard GI procedures, including colon cancer screening and upper/lower endoscopy.
- Participate in teaching and mentoring GI fellows as part of our academic mission.

- Help grow and expand the IBD program by developing innovative approaches to patient care and treatment.
- Perform intestinal ultrasounds as part of routine clinical practice for patients with IBD.
- Participate in multidisciplinary conferences and team meetings to ensure optimal patient outcomes.
- Engage in academic activities, including research, presentations, and participation in continuing medical education.
- Sites of work include Scripps Jefferson location as well as main hospitals (Green and Memorial) for inpatient care/call. Ultrasound for IBD practice will be available at all sites.
- Engage in research or scholarly activity as part of academic responsibilities (0.2 FTE).

Skills/ Experience

- Board-certified/board-eligible Gastroenterologist.
- Fellowship training in Gastroenterology, with advanced fellowship training in Inflammatory Bowel Disease or IBD focused training in fellowship preferred.
- Experience with intestinal ultrasound is a plus, but training will be provided.
- Strong clinical and communication skills with a passion for patient care and education.
- Ability to work effectively within a collaborative, multidisciplinary environment.
- Must be committed to academic growth and research in IBD.

Why Scripps Clinic Medical Group?

- Join our nationally recognized medical group with a commitment to high-quality patient care, teaching, research and innovation.
- Join our multispecialty Scripps GI Division, which includes 30 gastroenterologists, 9 advanced practice providers, 9 GI fellows (3 per year), GI dietitian, as well as work closely with our Transplant Hepatology team.
- Join our Scripps IBD program, which includes 2 IBD subspecialists and 1 advanced practice provider. In addition, we work closely with 4 Colorectal Surgeons, 2 stoma nurses, GI pathologists, and GI radiologists.
